New Hampshire, the “live free or die state”, is the ideal location to redomesticate or open a branch office. Only 45 minutes to 1 hour from downtown Boston, New Hampshire offers insurance companies an excellent labor base, low taxes and a great quality of life. The state has a favorable regulatory environment. The New Hampshire Insurance Department conducts audits in a professional, efficient and timely manner, understands the business of insurance, and is well respected by the State Legislature.

New Hampshire offers available real estate at affordable prices either for existing space or new construction with easy access to Manchester/Boston Regional Airport and Interstates, 93, 95 and 91.

It does make a difference where you domesticate a company. We hope you will consider New Hampshire in the future.

Quality of Life

Insurance companies not only expand to business friendly states, but also to states where people want to live. New Hampshire attracts talented young workers who are ideal for the insurance industry. Key quality of life benefits that attract workers to New Hampshire include:

- Excellent school systems
- High per capita income
- Low crime
- Excellent healthcare
- Easy access to airports/highways
- Open space/rural settings
- Reasonable cost of living
- Close to major city (but not too close)
- Cultural opportunities
- Sense of community
- Open to outsiders

Here are just a few examples of the many insurance companies that have domesticated in New Hampshire:
