

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Joseph Doiron: Okay. There we go. We're live. So, we're starting the recording at 10:00 AM, Wednesday, the 28th.

Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Joseph Doiron, Director of Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes, and I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

At this time, we have nobody who has signed up to speak, so we're going to pause the recording, and we will open the record when somebody is willing to speak. It is approximately 10:02, and I will pause the recording.

Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I want to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. We're going to end the recording at 11:01 AM here in North Conway. Thanks so much.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Well, good afternoon. We're going to start the recording. It is exactly 01:00 PM here in Berlin. Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

We do not have anybody on the sign in sheet, so we're going to pause the recording, and we'll open up the record if somebody has a public comment to provide.

Okay. It is 02:00 PM here in Berlin. Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I want to thank the members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 02:01 PM. Thanks so much.

We're going to start the recording. It is approximately 03:15 PM here in Littleton. Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

For the record, I am Joseph Doiron, Director of Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

We had circulated the sheet. There does not seem to be any sign ups as of yet. We will open the record if we get some public comments. So, we're going to pause the recording at approximately 03:17 PM here in Littleton.

Okay. It's approximately 04:15 PM here in Littleton. Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I'd like to thank the members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 04:16 PM. Thank you.

Lisa Gerrard: Please start the recording at 09:00 AM. Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions of the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator with the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

I see no sign-ins on the sign-in sheet, so we're going to stop the recording at 09:03 AM.

Again, for the record, this is Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator for the Office of Workforce Opportunity. We are here at Somersworth. It is approximately 10:17. I would like to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment sessions for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 10:17.

Good morning. Today is May 29. It's approximately 11:30 AM. Please start the recording at 11:30 AM. We are here in Salem, New Hampshire. Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator for the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Auxiliary aids and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

Seeing nobody on the sign in sheet, we will pause the recording at approximately 11:33 AM.

Again, for the record, this is Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator for the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I would like to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today here in Salem, New Hampshire. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 12:31.

Joseph Doiron: Good afternoon. We're going to start the recording. It is approximately 02:30 on the dot.

Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I'm Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time, follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

I am looking around the room and looking at the sign in sheet, we currently do not have any individuals signed up, so we're going to pause the recording and open up the record if folks choose to speak. It's approximately 02:31 PM here in Manchester. Thanks.

It's approximately 03:30 PM here in Manchester. Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I'd like to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance here today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 03:32 PM. Thanks.

Lisa Gerrard: Please start the recording at approximately 09:10. We are here in Laconia, for a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator for the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

Looking around the room and the sign-up sheet, there's nobody signed up to speak. So, we will stop the recording at approximately 09:15.

Again, for the record, this is Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator with the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I'd like to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 10:06 AM.

Joseph Doiron: We're going to start the recording. It is 10:30 AM here in Nashua.

Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which began on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

Taking a look at the sign in sheet, we don't have anyone signed up. So, it's approximately 10:32. I'm going to pause the recording, and we'll open it up if there's any other public comments. And if not, we'll open up at the end just to wrap things up. Thanks so much.

It is 11:30 AM here in Nashua. Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I want to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today in Nashua. We're going to end the recording. It is 11:31 AM. Thanks so much.

We're going to start the recording here in Keene. It is approximately 03:00 PM on the dot.

Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which began on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city that you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

I'm going to check the sheet; there's nobody currently signed up. But we will pause the recording here in Keene and open it up if somebody would like to speak. And if not, we'll also open the recording again to close out the meeting at 04:00 PM. So, I'm going to pause the recording now. It is approximately 03:02 PM.

Approximately, 04:00 PM here in Keene. Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I'd like to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at 04:01 PM here in Keene. Thank you.

Good morning. We're going to start the recording at 09:00 AM on the dot here in Concord.

Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aid and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which began on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit your comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this meeting is being recorded.

So, at this time we don't have anybody signed up to speak. So, we're going to pause the record and open it up if we get folks who want to speak or if not, we'll open it up to close the meeting. Thanks so much. It is approximately 09:02 AM here in Concord.

Okay. It is 10:00 AM here in Concord. Again, for the record, this is Joseph Doiron, Director of the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I want to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at approximately 10:02 here in Concord. Thanks so much.

Lisa Gerrard: Please start the recording at 01:00 PM on June 25, 2025, and we are in West Lebanon, New Hampshire.

Hello, and welcome to a public comment session regarding the required revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Thank you to the members of the public who are joining us here today.

For the record, I am Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator with the Office of Workforce Opportunity. I will help facilitate this public comment session.

Some quick notes as we begin the meeting. This meeting is being recorded. If you would not like to be recorded, you may leave at any time. Follow along by listening or submit written comment to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

Auxiliary aids and services were made available by request to individuals with disabilities. The current state plan has been made publicly available and is posted on the BEA website. There is a written public comment period which begins on May 30, 2025. Written comments will be accepted until 04:00 PM on July 30, 2025, and must be submitted in writing via email to jessica.a.thompson@livefree.nh.gov.

State Plan Public Comment Sessions

Today's public comment session is open to the public and will be run in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. This public comment session along with other public comment sessions were publicly noticed on the BEA website and in the New Hampshire Union Leader on May 23.

We invite any member of the public to speak publicly today. We have a sign-in sheet upfront that we can circulate. Please sign in if you are able. A staff member would also be happy to assist you. Please limit comments to two minutes. I will signal you when you are close to having your time expired. Before speaking, please state your name and the town or city you are from so that the transcription service can accurately document today's meeting. Again, this public comment session is being recorded.

There are no sign-in on our sign-in sheet. So, we will stop the recording at 01:02. And should anyone come into the public comment session or want to comment, we will reopen the session. Please stop the recording at 01:02 PM.

Again, for the record, this is Lisa Gerrard, WIOA Program Administrator for the Office of Workforce Opportunity. We are here in West Lebanon. It is June 25. It is 02:00 PM. I would like to thank members of the public for their participation and attendance today. This concludes the duly noticed public comment session for revisions to the New Hampshire Combined State Plan to implement the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. This meeting has been recorded and was conducted in a manner compliant with RSA 91-A. Thank you to the members of the public and our partner agencies for being with us here today. Please end the recording at 02:01 PM, June 25, 2025.