

DRAFT

Amendment to the Food Service/Restaurant guidance:

“For contact tracing purposes, restaurants shall maintain a record of customers, including one customer name and contact phone number per party, the table number or bar seat number, the server or bartenders name, and the date and time they were in the establishment, for at least 21 days. To-go and window service areas are exempt from this requirement”